

To Whom it May Concern,

I use XM Radio every day, I enjoy many of the the commercial free stations. Subscribers pay for the service and I don't think any group who does not like the fact that XM Radio is too much competition for them has any right to what subscribers pay to listen to. Tell the FCC to keep their hands off XM Radio.

Joe Guida